ABOUT ANIMAL MAGIC

I work with telepathy and energy healing to empower animals in their lives as physical, emotional and spiritual beings. I assist them and you in their health, behaviour, relationship dynamics, moving house or country and in crossing over with grace.

Why communicate

- ✓ To honour and hear them as a soul with a unique personality
- ✓ To bring healing, change and happiness to their lives and your own in the process
- ✓ To grow the magic in your relationship by growing clear two way communication
- ✓ To nurture greater inner peace for all

How many sessions

Often a single session is all that is needed for an issue, as being heard has a wonderful effect for everyone. You will receive clear action steps for overcoming any challenge with love and in beauty. In chronic cases follow ups will be advised on as needed.

What to expect

Anything! Animals are thinking, loving and spirited beings. Every individual is a unique make-up of personality, humour, sensitivity, strength, magic, insight and wisdom... just like you know them to be. Animal communication is a rich journey of personal growth and change for everyone.
